

Materials List 2008
Watercolor I & II
Renee Rubin

First time students - contact Renee before buying any supplies: 617- 244-3269

Small art supply stores are very expensive!!!! Avoid if possible....Best and least expensive art supply stores in this area: Utrecht; (stores opposite Symphony Hall on Huntington Ave in Boston and on Massachusetts Avenue in Cambridge between Harvard and Central Squares) on line at www.utrechtart.com; Pearl Arts and Crafts, Mass. Ave in Central Square, Cambridge. Cheap Joes catalog is great : www.cheapjoes.com Phone 1-800-227-2788.

Colors (tubes): Winsor Newton is best if you can afford it; 14 ml tubes are more economical.

(Winsor Newton's Cotman paint—is a lower grade; stay away if possible.) Do not buy tubes marked "hue"!

Cadmium yellow light

Cadmium yellow deep

Cadmium red

Yellow Ocher

Alizarin Crimson (don't buy Cotman's)

Burnt Sienna

Cerulean Blue (don't buy Cotman's or Grumbacher's)

Ultramarine blue

Paynes Gray (don't buy Cotman's)

Indigo

Brushes: If you have brushes, bring what you have! We will talk about the best brushes in class. If you go to buy brushes, ask the clerk for the best watercolor brushes in your price range.

Utrecht has very good reasonably priced brushes: Round # 12– (Utrecht's #238 Sable #12))

1" Wash brush– a nice brush that holds a lot of water (Utrecht's No. 1162 1" Sablette Sky Wash is nice)

Cheap Joe's catalog: www.cheapjoes.com; inexpensive and wonderful brushes:

Round #12: CJGF-12 ($8.99) (page 98)

1"Wash CJTF-1 ($13.39) (page 99)

Optional but nice: cat's tongue (oval wash) 3/4": SB3009-75 ($18.79); page 113

if you like to work big:: cat's tongue:1" SB3009-1 ($26.59) page 113

Palette: The largest you can afford

Paper: Sketchbook: 11"x 14" with paper heavy enough for drawing and watercolor exercises!

Miscellaneous:

2 small plastic containers for water

Small lightweight board to attach watercolor paper to (not needed for the first class)

Drafting tape

Drawing pencils 2B

Kneaded eraser

Clean sponge