

FRIENDS OF NEW ART CENTER

The Friends of New Art Center exemplify the philanthropy of our generous supporters, without whom we could not thrive.

Contributions from our donors enable us to serve best our community by offering high-quality art education, innovative exhibitions, scholarships, and outreach programs. Carrying out our mission through our programs would not be possible without you, our loyal and committed patrons.

Designation as a Friend of New Art Center is available to anyone contributing $500 or more to the Center in a calendar year. Friends of New Art Center are eligible for participation in exclusive opportunities including guided museum and gallery tours, private tours of artists' studios and collectors' homes, special access to art sales and auctions, and other exciting social events.

Please consider joining today. You make our organization vibrant and accessible. We depend on you to grow and sustain this wonderful asset to our community.
