Adult Classes Painting & Drawing

Acrylic & Oil Painting

John Murray AV113892

This exciting studio environment is for painters who want to explore the emotive and expressive qualities of paint. Class will focus on the painting process; specifically how expressive marks and color can be generated from spontaneous reactions to a subject. Oil, acrylic, or other water-based paints can be used for this course for all levels of students.

13 Mondays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/12-12/12

- Early Registration $545 • Tuition $595
- Materials fee $10 • No class 10/10

Watercolor with Renée

Renee Rubin AV113897

Explore the unique qualities of watercolor in a relaxed and supportive environment. The class emphasizes building drawing skills and learning a variety of watercolor techniques. Beginning and Intermediate students will also develop an understanding of color theory.

13 Mondays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/12-12/12

- Early Registration $460 • Tuition $510
- Materials fee $10 • No class 10/10

Guillermo Velasco

Draw the human figure in a relaxed environment and improve your rendering skills overall by incorporating rhythm, movement, and gestural elements in your work. Class exercises will evolve technical skill and composition and a variety of wet and dry media will be covered. Each class includes examples of master artists and critiques, and all skill levels are welcome.

Intro to Painting Processes - Evening

Suzanne Archibald AV114041

There are so many different methods of painting: watercolor, acrylic, gouche, oils, water-soluble oils. How does the Beginning student know which to pick? In this overview class, students will be introduced to a variety of painting methods and work in a supportive environment that encourages experimentation and process. Class will cover technical aspects of each type of painting, as well as composition, color and form. For Beginning students or anyone wanting to learn more ways to paint!

13 Mondays • 6:30-9:30pm • 9/12-12/12

- Early Registration $460 • Tuition $510
- Materials fee $25 • No class 10/10

Contemporary Painting

Roberta Paul AV113939

This course for the Advanced painter offers the chance to develop individual work within a group context. Individual painting and drawing development is facilitated through one-on-one discussions with the instructor and through group critiques.

13 Tuesdays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/13-12/13

- Early Registration $460 • Tuition $510
- No class 11/22

Watercolor Fruits, Flowers and more!

Guillermo Velasco AV113908

This class for Intermediate and Advanced students will focus on the translucent quality of watercolor painting. Students will paint beautiful flowers and fruit, or other subjects that follow a student's individual interests: botanical studies, portraits, landscapes and more!

13 Tuesdays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/13-12/13

- Early Registration $460 • Tuition $510
- Materials fee $10 • No class 11/22

Advanced Critique

Sue Miller AV113940

This class is for Advanced artists developing a body of work who want to take their art to the next level. Students will receive feedback from their peers as well as Sue Miller, a successful and respected professional artist. This is not a studio class; students should bring a body of work, finished and in-progress to each class.

4 Tuesdays • 1:00-4:00

- Class meets: 9/13, 10/4, 10/25, 11/15
- Early Registration $240 • Tuition $260

Landscape Painting - Early Fall

Michael Wilson AV113959

This class covers the unique challenges of landscape painting and provides students with the skills to render space two-dimensionally. Working in plein-air, or from photographs, students will work with composition, light, shading, and the effects of light on color to create a dynamic series of landscapes. Demonstrations focus on subject selection, underpainting, perspective, and creating a sense of space. One-on-one and group critiques will allow students to take their work to a new level. For all levels of students.

7 Tuesdays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/13-10/25

- Tuition $286

Methods of Master Painting - Late Fall

Michael Wilson AV113960

Learn or refine your painting skills with the help of master works of art as references. In this class, students will learn about composition, how to build interactive shapes and forms, brushwork, color relationships and much more. Class demonstrations will cover technique, and plenty of individual attention allows students to advance at their own pace, working on a series of pieces or focusing on one painting. For all levels of students.

6 Tuesdays • 9:30-12:30 • 11/1-12/13

- Tuition $248 • No class 11/22

Encaustic Painting

Tracy Spadafora AV113941

Known for its durability, versatility and unique painting surface qualities, encaustic has become a popular medium in contemporary art. In this 9-week session traditional and contemporary uses of encaustic are demonstrated with plenty of time for hands-on participation. Most materials are provided.

9 Tuesdays • 1:00-4:00 • Materials fee $110

- Early Registration $320 • Tuition $350
- Class meets: 9/20, 9/27, 10/11, 10/18, 11/1, 11/8, 11/29, 12/6, 12/13

"An excellent class with an excellent, knowledgeable instructor. Would definitely recommend it!"

Introduction to Drawing-Evening

Guillermo Velasco

Learn to draw in a relaxed, supportive atmosphere. Working from still life set-ups, class projects will instruct Beginning and Intermediate students in rendering everyday objects in new and exciting ways. The class will explore a wide variety of mark-making tools and techniques including pencil, charcoal, conte crayon and ink.

Collaborative Drawing - Evening - Late Fall

Michelle Paine AV114072

This class for students with some drawing experience, explores working large-scale in a collaborative method of drawing. Class will work in a "bottega" or workshop style, and will work from historical paintings to create copies of these large-scale works. We will develop these visual narratives as a team, actively moving up and down and across the length of a wall to craft these artworks on the scale on which they were created, and develop student skills in the process.

6 Tuesdays • 6:30-9:30pm • 11/1-12/13

- Early Registration $212 • Tuition $233
- Materials fee $15 • No class 11/22

Supercharged Painting

John Murray

This course begins with the idea that Jackson Pollack liberated painting and takes off from there. The class investigates various painting media including acrylic, glazes, pigments, and collage. Both figurative and abstract approaches are encouraged, in this energetic class for all levels of students.

Morning • AV113894 • 13 Wednesdays

- Early Registration $165 • Tuition $180
- Materials fee $50

Things They Don't Teach You in Art School-Evening

Bill St. George AV114058

This energetic class combines both structure and flexibility for all levels of painters working abstractly or realistically, in acrylic or oil paint. Freestyle warm up exercises get students painting, followed by more focused aspects of painting techniques, from toning the canvas to color selection, to expressive brushstrokes for bold compositions. Students are encouraged to determine their own subject matter with reference materials provided by the instructor. One-on-one critique will provide a supportive atmosphere that fosters progress and a feeling of true accomplishment.

7 Wednesdays • 6:30-9:30pm • 9/14-10/26

- Early Registration $250 • Tuition $275

Figure Painting

Jason Polins AV113937

Oil, acrylics, or drawing materials are welcome in this class for all levels of students interested in working weekly from the model. Demonstrations and critiques will be used to push students to a higher level of achievement. All levels of students are welcome and materials will be discussed in depth during the first class.

12 Thursdays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/15-12/15

- Early Registration $424 • Tuition $465
- Model fee $60 • No class 9/29, 11/24

Painting & Drawing (cont.)

Intermediate & Advanced Watercolor

Michael Milburn AV113938

Explore a variety of watercolor painting techniques in this 6-week class for Intermediate and Advanced watercolorists. Students will learn color values and theory, brushwork techniques, spraying, splattering, and pouring. Subjects will vary depending on student input, and have included still life, landscapes, and elements in nature.

- 6 Thursdays • 1:00-4:00 • 9/15-10/27
 • Early Registration $214 • Tuition $235
 • No class 9/29

Critique Group- Evening

Lois Tarlow AV113936

With a small group of practicing artists, explore your materials and muse. Discover how materials respond to ideas, and how they, in turn, suggest ideas of their own. Achieve continuity by finding and following the thread that leads from one work to another. Develop objectivity by adopting the process involved in assessing the work of others. These sessions are appropriate for working artists and for those who are returning to art after a time away and need a jump start, but not recommended for Beginning artists.

- 1 Tuesday, 3 Thursdays • 6:30-9:30pm
 • Class meets 9/13, 10/6, 10/27, 11/17
 • Early Registration $150 • Tuition $165

I Wish I Could Draw...

Karina Kadiyska AV113900

Learn the fundamentals of drawing in a relaxed environment in this class for Beginning and Intermediate students. Special emphasis will be placed on developing confidence with basic techniques plus experimentation with varied media. We will concentrate on making the drawing process the end result itself. Line, form, shape, proportion and composition will be covered.

- 12 Fridays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/16-12/16
 • Early Registration $424 • Tuition $465
 • Materials fee $20 • No class 11/11, 11/25

Beginning and Intermediate Oil & Acrylic Painting

Michael Wilson AV113944

Work in oil or acrylic paint in this studio class for all levels of painters. Beginning students will be given exercises in value, hue, and chroma working from observation. Intermediate students will work on their own projects with critiques and instruction. Materials, techniques and painting fundamentals are in integral part of this class.

- 12 Fridays • 9:30-12:30 • 9/16-12/16
 • Early Registration $424 • Tuition $465
 • No class 11/11, 11/25

Oil & Acrylic Painting Extension

Michael Wilson

Open to all students, this class is for painters who want additional time in the studio, and begins right after Beginning and Intermediate Oil & Acrylic Painting. Materials and techniques will be reviewed plus critiques of student work. Students can sign up for Early or Late Fall terms, or the full term.

- Early Fall • AV114074 • 6 Fridays

Intermediate Drawing

Karina Kadiyska AV113933

Building on foundation drawing skills of line, shape, composition, and proportion, this class will introduce students to analytical drawing based on perspective, as well as expand ideas about composition by presenting new and creative ways of working from observation. Students will explore various design principles such as movement, rhythm, pattern, balance, and repetition, and a variety of materials including charcoal, pencil, ink washes, and collage will be covered.

- 12 Fridays • 1:00-3:00 • 9/16-12/16
 • Early Registration $283 • Tuition $310
 • Materials fee $20 • No class • 11/11, 11/25

Advanced Critique Friday

Sue Miller AV114092

This class is for Advanced artists developing a body of work who want to take their art to the next level. Students will receive feedback from their peers as well as Sue Miller, a successful and respected professional artist. This is not a studio class; students should bring a body of work, finished and in-progress to each class.

Japanese Woodblock Printing - Evening

David Curcio AV113927

The Japanese process of creating a woodblock print differs from the Western method in both its materials and in the printing process. Ink is applied with a soft dense brush instead of a roller, so that luminous, transparent layers can be built. Separate blocks are used for each color, and notches carved into each block ensures accurate registration with each print. We will use these traditional materials and techniques to create prints of unlimited colors, depth and luminosity. Students of all levels are welcome.

Experimental Artists Books Weekend Workshop

Carol Blackwell AV113956

Explore the multiple possibilities of the construction of a book: invent a new form, experiment with different materials, or play with the book's structure. See what happens to the phone directory when reconfigured with gesso, scissors, collage or sewing; carve it or fold it. Or compose a visual history of your life in book form. Experimentation will be the focus of this "bookish" course and the possibilities this affords are endless. As the course is designed for non-conventional books, traditional book-binding skills are unnecessary.

Master Drawing Collaborative One-Day Workshop

Michelle Paine AV114071

We will explore form and space by working in a "bottega" or workshop style. Working collaboratively, students will encourage one another to move beyond current skill-level to create copies of large-scale historical paintings. We will develop these visual narratives as a team, actively moving up and down and across the length of a wall to enter these artworks on the scale on which they were created. Technical aspects of scaling up a drawing, overlapping forms, as well as the narrative implications of scale will be discussed. This workshop is for students with some drawing experience.

- 1 Saturday • 10/29 • 10:00-4:00
- Early Registration $95 • Tuition $110

Generating Visual Ideas

Carol Blackwell AV113957

Where do our ideas come from, if they do, and how is it possible to generate new ones for our artistic work to find something original and fresh to put on paper or canvas? Like all artists, we struggle continually with this issue as it is not always easily solvable. This workshop will provide uncomplicated "how-to" techniques for discovering spontaneous ideas and heretofore unconsidered ways of working, resulting in a more authentic visual vocabulary. For all levels of artists in all mediums, drawing, painting, collage, printmaking and three-dimensional media.

- Saturday & Sunday • 11/12-11/13
- 10:00-4:00 both days
- Early Registration $150 • Tuition $170

Join our Email List to receive updates on classes, exhibitions and special events!

To sign up, go to our website and click on "Join our mailing list," or call 617-964-3424.

Course Withdrawal & Refunds

Full refunds are given for classes withdrawn from 10 or more calendar days before the first class, less a $25 administrative fee.

No tuition refunds can be given thereafter.

Material and model fees only will be reimbursed to those who withdraw from a class 10 calendar days before a class starts. No partial refunds, pro-rated classes, or make-up classes are offered for student absence or scheduling conflicts.

Course Confirmation

The online registration process sends a receipt of your online transaction to your email account. Classes will be confirmed by email, just prior to the start of class. Students are encouraged to call the Center with any questions about enrollment status. In the event that a course is full, the New Art Center will notify students and fully refund tuition. The New Art Center reserves the right to cancel classes with a full refund if enrollment is insufficient to run the class.

Access Services

Call New England Telephone Relay at 1-800-439-2370 to reach the New Art Center. Certified hearing dogs and service animals are welcome. The Main Gallery is wheelchair accessible. Large print materials available. To attend classes students must be able to function independently or be accompanied by an aide.

Snow & Inclement Weather

In the event of bad weather, daytime weekday classes will be cancelled only if the Newton Public Schools are closed. Channel 5 will also list closings for the New Art Center. When there is a morning delay for Newton Public Schools, please call the office. For evening and weekend classes, call the office to find out if your class is running. Class cancellations due to weather will be made up at the end of the term, if possible.

The New Art Center does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, creed, religion, age, sexual orientation, or national origin.

Late Registration

After classes begin, registration is permitted on a space-available basis with faculty approval. Please call the office to arrange.

Course Cancellation

The New Art Center reserves the right to cancel classes with a full refund if enrollment is insufficient to run the class. If possible, classes cancelled due to teacher absence will be made up at the end of the term or at a mutually agreed upon time.

New Art Center programs are sometimes videotaped or photographed for publicity such as catalogs, newspapers, radio or television. Permission to be included in publicity is implied by enrollment. Please contact the office in writing if you do not wish to be included in publicity.

Children's Special Circumstances

Parents must notify the office about any medical conditions, allergies, learning styles, social needs, or other special circumstances that might affect your child's participation in the program, at the start of each term. Medications must remain in the New Art Center office, children may not self-administer any medications.

Directions

The New Art Center is accessible by car and by public transportation. Please visit our website for directions.

Gift Certificates

New Art Center Gift Certificates are available in any dollar amount for use with all Adult, Teen, and Children's classes, or for events.
